

Oxford Centre for Global History and Cantemir Institute

Deserts, Steppes and Inner Spaces in Global History

UNIVERSITY OF OXFORD
CENTRE FOR GLOBAL HISTORY

Wednesday 7 November 2012, 2pm – 5pm
Common Room, History Faculty

Rob Fletcher (Oxford)

Arabia Rediviva: a Syrian Desert arena, 1919-1939

Mark Thompson (Oxford)

Danilo Kis, Central European Literature, and the Inner Spaces of Style

Berny Sèbe (Birmingham) and Alexander Morrison (Liverpool)

Outposts of Conquest: the History and Legacy of the Fortresses of the Steppe and the Sahara in Comparative Perspective (1840s to today)

Followed by drinks in the Rees Davies Room 5-6pm.
All welcome. Contact global@history.ox.ac.uk to register.

Convenors: James Belich, John Darwin, Rob Fletcher