

Global & Imperial History Trinity Term Workshop

New angles on Empire

Friday 11th May 2012 (Week 3), 10am – 5pm

Colin Matthew Room, History Faculty

'A public sphere for the Angloworld? The commercialisation of culture in the British Empire'
Simon Potter (Bristol)

'Angloworlds, settler worlds, world systems and killing fields: Exploring a latent conflict of concepts'
Stephen Howe (Bristol)

'Masked condominia: collaboration vs competition in the trans-European history of Imperialism'
Richard Drayton (KCL)

'Imperial networks and the social production of space'
Tamson Pietsch (Brunel)

'Before Humpty Dumpty: England and its Empire in the Middle Ages'
Peter Crooks (Trinity College, Dublin)

'Immigrant welfare during decolonisation'
Andrew Thompson (Exeter)

Followed by a reception in the Common Room.

Conveners: James Belich, John Darwin, Jan-Georg Deutsch

For further information contact claire.phillips@history.ox.ac.uk