

TRANSNATIONAL AND GLOBAL HISTORY SEMINAR

CALL FOR PAPERS

The Oxford Transnational and Global History Seminar is inviting submissions to present papers during Michaelmas Term 2020 (October-December).

We welcome submissions which encompass a wide range of global historical approaches. These may include but are not limited to: comparative transnational or transregional histories; economic, environmental, and social histories; histories of migration, race, gender, and class; colonial and postcolonial studies.

This seminar is a welcoming space for graduate students and early career researchers to share their work, and we accept submissions at all stages of the research process, including work in progress. We aim to provide helpful and constructive feedback in an inclusive environment.

Graduate presentations will take place via Zoom on Tuesdays in November at 5pm. Papers will be 20 minutes in length, with 30 minutes for questions and discussion.

Please submit your abstract (max 300 words) and a short bio (max 100 words) to oxfordtghs@gmail.com by Monday 12th October 2020.

Please contact us if you have any questions, and follow us on twitter @OxfordTGHS

We look forward to reading your submissions!

This seminar is funded through the generous donations of the Sudbury Oxford Transnational History Foundation and the University of Oxford Beit Fund.
