

OXFORD TRANSNATIONAL AND GLOBAL HISTORY SEMINAR (TGHS)

Michaelmas Term 2019 Term Card

'Strange Parallels: Comparison & Global History'

Tuesdays, 17:00-18:30 – Platnauer Room, Brasenose College

Please join us from 16:45 for welcome drinks

Week 0 (Tuesday 8th October) - Special Event

Introduction of the Oxford and Empire project and joint Welcome Drinks with GIH.
(History Faculty, Common Room, 5pm)

Week 1 (Tuesday 15th October)

'Island and mainland colonies in the Greater Caribbean during the Revolutionary Era'
Dr. Dexnell Peters (Exeter College, University of Oxford)
With a response by Prof. David Lambert (University of Warwick)

Week 3 (Tuesday 29th October)

'Eradicating Pathogens, Eradicating Empire: Quarantine against repatriates in Busan and Japan after WWII'
Dr. Jeong-Ran Kim (Green Templeton College, University of Oxford)

Week 5 (Tuesday 12th November)

'Oceanic Perspectives: Towards a Cultural History of South America's Pacific Coast'
Dr. Paul Merchant (University of Bristol)

Week 7 (Tuesday 26th November)

Global History Graduate Students Workshop

Respondent: Dr. Faridah Zaman (Somerville College, University of Oxford)

Paper 1: Thomas C. Burnham (Keble College)

'Supping with a Long Spoon in the Indian Ocean: Sino-Soviet Competition over Mauritius'

Paper 2: Huw Jones (Jesus College)

'Twelfth-Century 'Barbarians' and the Art of Not Being Governed'