

OXFORD TRANSNATIONAL AND GLOBAL HISTORY SEMINAR

Hilary Term 2018 Term Card

'MARITIME APPROACHES TO GLOBAL HISTORY'

Tuesdays, 5pm – Colin Matthew Room, History Faculty

Week 3 (Tuesday 30th January)

'The Jan-Georg Deutsch Annual Debate'

'Global History Is An Excuse for Anglophones to Study the History of the World Without Having to Learn any of its Languages'

Proposition: Prof. Alexander Morrison (New College, Oxford)

Defence: Dr. Kevin W. Fogg (Brasenose, Oxford)

Week 4 (Wednesday 7th February)

'Capital of a Liquid Continent: The Port of Marseille, the Mediterranean Sea and the Re-Globalization of France, 1798-1935'

Dr. Manuel Borutta (Ruhr-Universität Bochum)

Week 5 (Tuesday, 13th February)

'Piracy and the Oceanic Turn'

Dr. Simon Layton (Queen Mary, University of London)

Week 6 (Tuesday, 20th February)

'Islands and Isolation in European History: Towards an Intellectual History of the Isle of Man'

Dr. Dina Gusejnova (University of Sheffield)

Week 8 (Tuesday, 6th March)

'Channels of Communication: Rethinking Connections and their Limits in the Suez Canal Region c. 1900'

Dr. Valeska Huber (Freie Universität Berlin)